Interactive, research-based programs provide girls with skills and knowledge to set goals, overcome obstacles, and improve academic performance.

Girls Inc.'s identity programs are age-appropriate, research-based, and designed specifically to meet the needs of girls including but not limited to: Science, Technology, Engineering, and Math (STEM), leadership, literacy, self-esteem/positive body image, healthy relationships, anti-bullying, nutrition, exercise, drug abuse educations/prevention, financial literacy/budgeting, entrepreneurship, and life skills.
